

Special scheme for welfare of newly born girl children (Dhee Rani Scheme) :-

A special insurance scheme with the motive to protect girl child of police personnel (constable to Inspector) has been launched in the year 2011 by investing Rs. 25,000/- with LIC of India from welfare fund in the name of newly born female child. The maturity amount of this policy will be released to the Dhee-Rani on attaining the age of 18 years. Under this scheme total 801 No. of cases has been considered and Rs. 2.25 Crore has been invested with the insurance company. Now this scheme is also being extended to our Class-IV employees w.e.f. 1.01.2016.